"THE GREAT OF THE EARTH MAY NOT BE KNOWN TO US IN PERSON, BUT WE CAN LIVE IN THE COMPANY OF THE GREAT, THROUGH OUR MINDS, THROUGH OUR ASPIRATIONS AND OUR IDEALS, THROUGH OUR HERO WORSHIP, AND THROUGH OUR ATTEMPT TO EMULATE THE NOBLEST WE KNOW."..... Anonymous

Dear Gummy,
I've known you
now exactly 5 years +
during this time we've had our laughs, & plenty of them, & also during this time we've had our spats.
But in spite of this we're still good friends (I hope).
I hope you will remember
me always as a friend.
Be good now & you'll find love, luck & happiness in life.

CLASS OF 1953 LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of 1953, future voters and drattees, alias peasants, being of bone head and bonier body, do so bequeath unto you, our heirs, all our high school joys and worthless possessions. Let it be hereby perceived that this document shall hereafter be known as our Last Will and Testament.

After much contemplation regarding the vesting of our fortunes, We, the Seniors, resolve it shall be thus:

To Mr. Sabin we leave our heartfelt thanks for his unfailing efforts on our behalf.

To Mr. Francis, whose cheery chimes and lilting voice have awakened us every morning in home room, we bequeath one large sized megaphone so his voice may be heard throughout the school without technical difficulties.

To Mrs. Martin and Mr. Iman who have stood by us through thick and thin, we leave our sincerest appreciation for being the most understanding advisers a senior class has ever had. We would like to leave you a paid vacation in Bermuda. Instead, you lucky dogs, we substitute one hundred Coca-Cola bottle caps to be used October 35, Coca-Cola Day at Sea Breeze. Have fun!

To Mr. Stalker we leave a genuine Dick Tracy Junior G-Man outfit and a leather-bound volume of Fearless Fosdick's "The Art of Eating Sugared Doughnuts."

To Miss Martens we leave a new typewriter for her office to replace Old Betsy who was due for retirement ten years ago. May she rest in pieces.

To Mr. Rahtjen we leave, "I'll never tell."

To Miss Coulton we leave one recording sung by Marilyn Monroe, "She's Working Her Way through College."

To Miss Levin we leave all the debris that Joe and his pals have swiped from her room in the past few months.

To our newly discovered violin virtuoso, Mr. Kaplan, we leave one box of rosin for his strings and another for his foot so it will not slip off the pedal when he plays the piano.

To Miss Sullivan we leave one year's supply of slightly used tea bags, a miracle polishing cloth for her silver tea service, and a pair of roller skates to get from one class to another.

To Mr. Remington we leave one prompter's box, so his stage whispers cannot be heard beyond the first ten rows.

To Mr. O'Brien we leave several girls' gym suits to be used for next year's student-faculty basketball game.

To our beloved Herman we leave an automatic record changer and the promise of the next dance.

To the Misses Carnahan, Harger, Rosenbloom, and Turner we leave all the available unattached manpower in Franklin.

To Mrs. Trentman we leave a gallon of peppermint water and new foam rubber pillows for her cots.

To Mrs. Wuerges we leave a pencil that writes only A's.

To Mrs. Sherman we leave a life membership to the A. A. A.

To Miss Rowley we leave a night lamp for her desk to be used while she is working on the Key after school.

To Mr. Carroll and Mr. Betten we leave a season's pass to "Break the Bank." Good luck, boys!

To Mr. Miller we leave an annual subscription to "The Farmer's Almanac."

To Mr. Zornow we leave the accumulated signs from Courant and Key publicity staffs for use next year.

To all the Senior home room teachers we leave the vicious five year cycle of headaches and worries they receive with the incoming Eighth Graders.

To next year's Seniors we leave the futile dreams of being graduated in new caps and gowns.

To the next Junior Class we leave the binomial theorem, Julius Caesar, and the Civil War period.

To the present Freshman Class we leave the joy of becoming upper classmen.

To the Eighth Graders we leave the front rows of the peanut gallery.

To next year's Eighth Graders we leave the thrill of impressing their grammar school pals.

This document is duly witnessed and signed this seventeenth day of January in the year of Our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty three, by the Senior Class of Benjamin Franklin High School. The executors of this document are Cantor, Frederico, O'Connor, and Sisca—incorporated.

Dear Annie,

Ever since #20 school we've been pals and so far all through Franklin. I know it will continue on through future years to come. I'll never forget the fun & laughs we've had in Trig-ry & Critters. I'm looking forward to an exciting summer with you down the lake. You're really a lot of fun to be with especially while walking down Clinton Ave. Someday when your "dream man" comes along you'll know just how I felt about (you know who) and realize why I was always talking about him. Well, enough of my troubles, I hope you in some of my classes next year, for a change. We can really have some fun. By the way don't forget you still have my kerchief and bobby-pins, Well Annie, I really can't think of anything else to write so I'll just stop now—

Remember me,
"Mary Jane"

Ann,

We've had fun this year at Franklin. Best of Luck always.

Butter (Solly)

Good luck
and best wishes always,
